INSTRUCTIONS FOR DIRECT DEPOSIT AGREEMENT (FORM ERS-210)

Hawaii Revised Statutes Section 88-6(a)(2), requires all retirees and beneficiaries of the Employees' Retirement System of the State of Hawaii ("ERS") to designate a financial institution into which the ERS shall be authorized to deposit their ERS retirement benefits.

All portions of the Direct Deposit Agreement (Form ERS-210) must be completed in order for the form to be valid. In addition, if there is any alteration of this form, a new form must be completed. You must submit a new form if there are any changes to your account (i.e. account number, account title, financial institution). The most recently dated form submitted to ERS will apply.

Section A – Account Information

The retiree or beneficiary's name must appear on the account. ERS is required by law to deposit pension benefits into the retiree or beneficiary's account. Entities such as a Trust Account, Care Home Facility, and Business Accounts cannot be used for ERS purposes.

You may ask the representative of the financial institution to help complete and verify the account information in this section.

IMPORTANT: The account information provided will be used to direct deposit your ERS pension or refund. Incorrect information will cause a delay in your receiving your monies.

Section B – Deposit Authorization and Agreements of All Account Holders

By signing the Direct Deposit Agreement, you and all account holders authorize the ERS to automatically and directly deposit your ERS benefits to the Financial Institution named in Section A.

This section contains the agreements of everybody who is on the account, including the ERS retiree or beneficiary. The agreements in this section apply to all Account Holders even if they are not the retiree or beneficiary receiving ERS benefits.

The retiree or beneficiary signs as primary account holder. If the account is a joint account, please have all account holder(s) sign the form. Use an additional sheet if necessary. If you are representing the retiree or beneficiary, please ensure that you have any authorizing document(s) attached to the Direct Deposit Agreement (Form ERS-210).
