Ordinary Disability Retirement
 Noncontributory Plan

Ordinary Disability Definition	A mental or physical incapacity for further performance of duty that at the time of the application for ordinary disability retirement is likely to be permanent.
Eligibility Requirements	You can receive an ordinary disability retirement if you meet the following requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (1) You must be a member employed or on leave without pay (not terminated, retired, or previously retired) at the time your application is filed; (2) You have at least 10 years of creditable service excluding unused sick leave; and (3) The ERS Medical Board certifies you are permanently disabled for the further performance of duty.
Disability Process	You or your guardian appointed by a court pursuant to the Uniform Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Act may file an application with the ERS. Retirement can be the first day of the month except for December when retirement on the first or last day of the month is allowed. The effective date of the retirement shall be no earlier than 30 days after the date the application is filed in the ERS office or the date you terminate service, whichever is later. A medical report (Form ERS-34 - Statement of Examining Physician) from your personal physician(s) must be submitted. This report describes your disability. Any other pertinent medical reports, X-rays, etc., that may be of value to the ERS Medical Board should be submitted. The ERS Medical Board will review these reports, and make a recommendation on your case, which is subject to final approval by the ERS Board of Trustees (Board). If Form ERS-34 is not submitted within 60 days from the date you filed a disability application, your application will be cancelled. You will be notified of the Board's decision and will be given the opportunity to appeal any adverse decision.
Pension Benefit	The Maximum Allowance is 1.25% multiplied by your years of credited service multiplied by your average final compensation (AFC). There is no reduction for age.

Pension Calculation	Example: Heather is 50 years old and has 18 years of credited service. Her annual AFC is $65,000. Calculations for her Maximum Allowance is: $1.25\% \times 18 \text{ years} \times \$65,000 = \$14,625/\text{year} (\$1,218.75/\text{month})$ Heather will receive a Maximum Allowance pension benefit of $1,218.75 a month.
