II. INTRODUCTION

The Employees' Retirement System (ERS) is a multi-billion-dollar public pension fund that administers the retirement benefits program for State and County government employees, i.e., all State Executive Branches, University of Hawaii, the Department of Education, Judiciary, the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation, City and County of Honolulu, as well as the Counties of Hawaii, Kauai, and Maui (which includes the islands of Molokai and Lanai). The ERS administratively attached to the Department of Budget and Finance and is governed under the policy and executive direction of its Board of Trustees. The Investment Office plans, organizes, executes, and administers the investment-related activities of the ERS in accordance with approved policy guidelines and applicable Hawaii Revised Statutes. The investment portfolio currently constitutes a diversified mix of investment strategies, across liquid and illiquid markets, with the strategic mission to obtain a reasonable return on investments consistent with the preservation of principal, while maintaining sufficient liquidity to react to the changing environment and to pay benefits when due.

Under the direction of the Chief Investment Officer (CIO), the Investment Officer (Diversifying Strategies) is responsible for leading the selection, oversight, and ongoing evaluation of external investment managers across the Diversifying Strategies (DS) portfolio. This includes strategies within the Liquid Defensive (Duration, Systematic Trend Following, and Defensive Return Capture/Tail Risk hedging), Liquid Diversifying (Global Macro and Relative Value strategies), and Illiquid Diversifying (Insurance-Linked, Idiosyncratic strategies) components, all of which collectively serve to stabilize the total fund, reduce drawdowns during market crises, and enhance long term portfolio resilience. The Investment Officer plays a critical role in ensuring these strategies are effectively implemented, properly governed, and aligned with ERS's long term investment objectives, risk parameters, and liquidity needs.
