

Employees' Retirement System
of the State of Hawaii

ERS presentation videos posted

Updated: April 12, 2023

Recorded presentations featuring the Employees' Retirement System and for Noncontributory, Hybrid and Contributory (police officers, firefighters and designated categories only) members are available for viewing on the ERS website.

A general overview video reviews ERS plans, retirement types, membership, pension requirements and calculations, filing an application, unused sick leave benefit, post-retirement increase, and active employee death benefits.

Members preparing for retirement can review the important information in the Noncontributory, Hybrid and Contributory (police officers, firefighters and designated categories only) videos. Information includes a review of membership service, eligibility requirements, pension calculations, and the features of the different retirement options.
